

VILLAGE OF GEORGETOWN, OHIO

ORDINANCE NO. 1102

AN ORDINANCE AUTHORIZING THE TRADE OF USED EQUIPMENT OF THE VILLAGE OF GEORGETOWN IN EXCHANGE FOR NEW EQUIPMENT OF THE SAME TYPE AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY

WHEREAS, the Village of Georgetown is the owner of the following described used equipment which is obsolete, is not needed or is unfit for public use:

1991 John Deere 670 Tractor

WHEREAS, the Village of Georgetown has need of equipment of the same type; and

WHEREAS, it will be in the best interest of the Village of Georgetown that the sale of such obsolete, unneeded or unfit equipment be made simultaneously with the purchase of the new equipment of the same type,

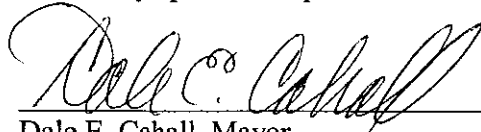

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Council of the Village of Georgetown, two-thirds (2/3) or more of all members thereof concurring as follows, that:

SECTION 1. The Village Administrator, being the officer having supervision and management of such property, shall be and hereby is authorized to offer to sell such used equipment and to have the selling price thereof credited against the purchase price of replacement equipment and to consummate the sale and purchase by a single contract pursuant to Section 721.15(B) of the Ohio Revised Code.

SECTION 2. The Village Administrator is specifically authorized to purchase a John Deere 3005 tractor from Cahall Bros., Inc. for the purchase price of $12,122.38 less the sum of $3,250.00 for the trade of such obsolete, unneeded or unfit equipment as described above for a net purchase price of $8,872.38.

SECTION 3. This Ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency ordinance necessary for the health, safety or welfare of the inhabitants of the Village of Georgetown and more particularly for the reason that it is important that the Village of Georgetown be able to perform essential governmental functions and provide essential governmental services in a safe and efficient manner and this Ordinance shall be in full force and effect immediately upon its adoption.
